

THE NATION FOR WHOM CHRIST CAME

John 3:16

By: Iyaqar Ahmath

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” – John 3:16.

This biblical verse is arguably the most quoted verse in the Scriptures. All religious denominations, including theologians, bible scholars, and even those who have no sincere faith or knowledge of the Bible, hold fast to this verse. We too believe wholeheartedly in this verse, but we believe it with the proper knowledge, wisdom and understanding with which Christ presented it (Proverbs 4:7). A couple of simple questions which should be posed to the reader after he or she has read John 3:16 are:

“Do you truly believe that God loves this world so much that He will accept anyone who believes in Him and His Son, Jesus Christ? And, with all of the lies, hypocrisies, blasphemies, murders, unjust laws, and corrupt governments operating in the world, how can God still love the whole world and all the inhabitants thereof?”

This belief would make our Savior seem so very desperate as if He needs us, and therefore He is willing to accept anyone, rather than the fact that we need Him, which is the way it truly is!

The truth of the matter is that Christ and The Most High do not “love everyone and anyone” in the world. There is one nation in the world which Christ and The Most High truly and dearly love, and one nation with which they both have an everlasting covenant, and that nation is the Nation of Israel. (See, Exodus 24:3-8; Jeremiah 31:35-37; Isaiah 44:21-22; and Amos 3:1-2.) Clearly, we see from the scriptural precepts that God loves, and has always had a special bond, with the Nation of Israel (Deuteronomy 7:6).

Now let us break down John 3:16, “line by line, precept upon precept” as the Bible instructs us to do (Isaiah 28:9-11). “For God so loved the world ...” This statement by itself is powerful, and can be looked at in numerous ways. Of course, the majority of the religious population believes and understands this to be the earth and all its inhabitants, while we contend that there are multiple worlds which God created, and He is specifically speaking about one of His creations. Hebrews 1:1-2 reads: (1) “God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, (2) Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;” Here, we see that Christ indeed created more than one world to reign over. In our modern day societies, we also recognize multiple worlds even on basic levels, such as the animal world, the plant world, so-called Third World countries, etc. Now some of you might say, “That’s all part of the world earth; that doesn’t count!” But let us not be hypocrites and deny the fact that these are worlds that science and governments have acknowledged. We sometimes jokingly remark when someone is in deep concentration or thought, or is even “crazy,” that the person is in their “own world!” So, with that understanding, let us find out about the world within the world (earth) which God so loves and gave His only begotten Son for, and further prove that The Most High was not speaking of the earth as the world.

Christ himself said that he only came for the Nation of Israel and did not pray for the world’s salvation (Matthew 15:24; John 17:9; and Matthew 10:5-6). Now after reading these scriptures, how can we reasonably believe that Christ is coming back for anybody and everybody in the “world” who believes in Him and our Heavenly Father?! The world being spoken of which Christ is coming back to redeem and save is the World of Israel! “But Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.” (Isaiah 45:17.) The Israelite Nation is a world all unto itself! The Twelve Tribes of Israel, through the spirit of The Most High, have been able to create a world within the earth. Through our creative cultures in dance, music, science, technologies, trends, athletics, knowledge, wisdom and understanding, we are a world within a world. Other nations desire to be like us, to be part of our world and take part in the beautiful spirit of Israel, but they are not privy to the salvation that is coming to our world.

Read the following precepts for further undeniable proof that Israel is the world John spoke of and none other: Acts 5:29-31; Matthew 1:21; Jeremiah 3:23; John 4:22-23; Acts 13:22-24; Psalms 147:19-20; Psalms 130:7-8; and Psalms 131:3. After reading these scriptures, one can now return to John 3:16 and read it with a lot more clarity. “For God so loved the world (Israel), that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever (of Israel) believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” AMEN!

In closing, we need to read and acknowledge that God never changed this protocol, and the Bible proves this. “For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” (Malachi 3:6.) “*Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever.” (Hebrews 13:8.)
